

STRONG FOUNDATIONS

EARLY LEARNING

Building Strong Readers From the Start

10-Minute Reading & Literacy Games for Pre-K Families

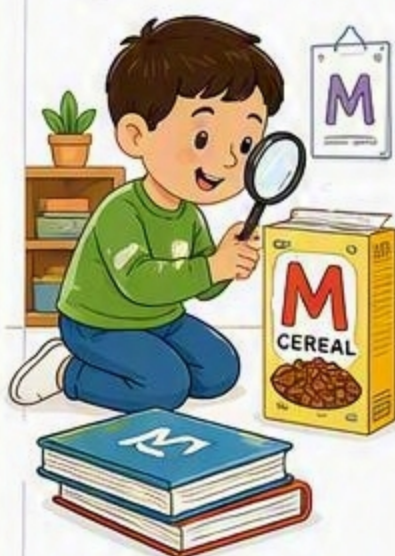

Building Early Literacy Foundations Through Play

Simple, fun activities that build letter knowledge, vocabulary, listening skills, and a love of reading!

5 FUN GAMES TO BUILD STRONG FOUNDATIONS

1 Letter Hunt

Find letters everywhere around your home using books, cereal boxes, signs, and toys.

Skills Practiced:

- ✓ Letter Recognition
- ✓ Letter Sounds
- ✓ Print Awareness

2 Rhyme Time

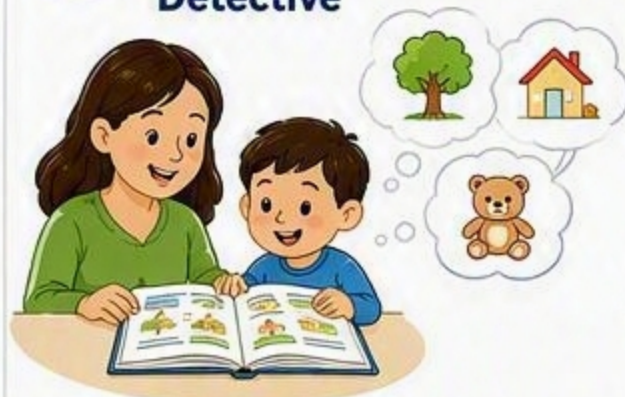

Take turns thinking of words that rhyme. Silly words count too!

Skills Practiced:

- ✓ Rhyming
- ✓ Listening
- ✓ Vocabulary

3 Picture Walk Detective

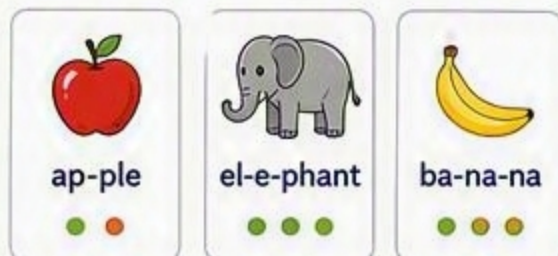

Look through the pictures before reading the story. Make predictions about what might happen!

Skills Practiced:

- ✓ Prediction
- ✓ Vocabulary
- ✓ Comprehension

4 Syllable Clapping Challenge

Clap the beats in words. How many claps does each word have?

Skills Practiced:

- ✓ Listening
- ✓ Syllable Awareness
- ✓ Word Awareness

5 Sound Detective

Find objects that begin with a target sound. Great for car rides!

Skills Practiced:

- ✓ Beginning Sounds
- ✓ Listening
- ✓ Vocabulary

READING IN ANY LANGUAGE COUNTS!

Strong language skills in your home language help your child become a strong reader in English and in life.

Read Together

Tell Stories

Discuss Pictures

Celebrate Bilingualism

TEN MINUTES A DAY MAKES A DIFFERENCE

Reading, talking, playing, and writing together helps children develop strong literacy skills and a love of learning.

Strong foundations today. Lifelong success tomorrow.

I'm here to help!

